

Informational Interchange on Environmental Protection among Local governments in North East Asia Region

Survey on the Washed-up driftage on the coasts along Northwest Pacific

Objective

In order to preserve the Marine Environment which is regarded as shared resources in North East Asia Region, its coastal local governments and NGO will carry out the surveys on the Washed-up driftage on the coast and raise people's awareness not to throw away the garbage there.

Implementation

(1)Period:

September to October in 2004

(2)Survey method:

see "The survey method on Washed-up Driftage on the coasts along Northwest Pacific"

(3)Place:

Coastal areas along the Northwest Pacific (1 or 2 places in each local government area)

(4)Method:

It will be carried out by local governments in cooperation with elementary and junior high schools and private organizations in that region.

Participation request to local governments

(1)Tasks to be done by local governments participated:

to implement the survey on Washed-up Driftage and report its results.

(2)Participation request for:

the members of the Association of North East Asia Regional Governments

(3)Financial cooperation:

- 1.The necessary tools(ex. tape measures, tweezers, scales) for the survey will be provided in kind.
- 2.The expense for the items except for (ex. petrol, photo development), will be partly provided.

[Inquiry to]

The Northwest Pacific Region Environmental Cooperation Center(NPEC)

5-5 Ushijimashinmachi, Toyama city, Toyama Prefecture 930-0856 JAPAN

Tel: +81-76-445-1571

Fax: +81-76-445-1581

E-mail: webmaster@npec.or.jp