

Informational Interchange on Environmental Protection among Local governments in North East Asia Region

Educational Activities for Children on Marine Environmental Protection

Objective

Educational activities will be implemented to children in order to protect Marine Environment in North East Asia Region. For the elementary and junior high school students who participates in the survey on the Washed-up Driftage on the coasts along the North East Asia Region, these activities will give them the opportunities to implement the joint surveys with overseas children and to make presentations on their surveys. They will also raise children's awareness for taking a broad view of issues on the Marine Environmental Protection.

Implementation

(1)Period:

October to November in 2004

(2)Place:

Unknown

(3)Method:

Local governments participated will implement the activities with the cooperation of the elementary and junior high schools which participate in the survey on the Washed-up Driftage on the coasts along the North East Asia Region.

Participation request

(1)Tasks to be done by local governments participated:

to implement the children's dispatch, acceptance and educational activities.

(2)Participation request for:

the members of the Association of North East Asia Regional Governments(on condition that the local governments participated in the survey on the Washed-up Driftage on the coasts along the North East Asia Region

(3)Financial cooperation:

Travel expense of participants will be borne by the local government dispatched and living expense during staying will be borne by the local government accepted.

[Inquiry to]

The Northwest Pacific Region Environmental Cooperation Center(NPEC)

5-5 Ushijimashinmachi, Toyama city, Toyama Prefecture 930-0856 JAPAN

Tel: +81-76-445-1571

Fax: +81-76-445-1581

E-mail: webmaster@npec.or.jp